A FOLDED LEAF

Ah! we have all a folded leaf,
That in Time's book of long ago,
We leave—a half relief
Falls on us when we hide it so,
We fold it down, then turn away,
And who may read that page to-day. Not you, my child, nor you my wife, Who sit besides my study about Who sit besides my study chair;
For all have something in their life,
That they, and they alone, may bear—
A triffing lie, a deadly sin,
A something bought they did not win, My folded leaf! how blue eyes gleam And blot the dark brown eyes I see And golden curls at evening beam
Above the black locks at my knee!
Ah me! that leaf is folded down,
And aye for me the locks are brown.

And yet I love them who sit by,
My best and dearest, dearest now,
They may not know for what I sigh,
What brings the shadow on my brow.
Ghosts at the best; so let them be,
Nor come between my life and me.

They only rise at twilight hour;
To light the lamp and close the blind
Small perfume lingers in the flower
That sleeps that folded page behind
To let it ever folded lie:
"Twill be unfolded when I die.
